

Appendix C: Transcriptions from original box labels with accompanying notes by John MacGregor (as found on index cards within manuscript boxes)

Box 1, Darger Collection, Volume 1, Realms, Bound, PDR1, packed 6.24.02 Volume 1, Bound, 644 pages, 47 chapters, (Perfect continuity with Vol. 2)

Box 2, Darger Collection, Volume 2, Realms, Bound, PDR2, packed 6.24.02 Volume 2, Bound 915 pages

64 chapters (Perfect continuity with Volume 1)

On page 955: last line of volume isn't concluded; it just ends with no period
(there is clear continuity with Volume 3)

Box 3, Darger Collection, Volume 3, Realms, Bound, PDR3, packed 1/29/04 Volume 3, Bound, 1161 pages (There is clear continuity from Volume 2), pp 1 -

Box 3, Very firm and clear ending.

Box 4, Darger Collection, Volume 4, Realms, Bound, PDR4, packed 6.24.02 Volume 4, Bound, 1577 pages - the largest bound volume

There is no obvious continuity from Volume 3. But, Volume 4 simply moves off in a new direction. There is no reason to suspect a break, or missing volume between Vol. 3 and 4. Just a firm boundary between 3 and 4. Mostly concerned with flood.

Box 5, Darger Collection, Volume 5, Realms, Bound, PDR5, packed 1/29/04 Volume 5, Bound, Vol. 5 - found January, 1992. 862 pages

Rediscovered Jan. 17, 1992. Continuity is clear until Vol. 5.

Perfect continuity until Volume 6.

Box 6, Darger Collection, Volume 6, Realms, Bound, PDR6, packed 6.24.02 Volume 6, Bound, 933 pages, 39 chapters

There is no continuity from Vol. 4! At the time Vol. 5 was missing -- this problem. A break has occurred. Girl scouts are aboard a raft on the flood.

We know nothing of this raft! Where did it come from? A volume is clearly missing! And it was found! Perfect continuity with bound Volume 7.

Box 7, Darger Collection, Volume 7, Realms, Bound, PDR7, packed 6.24.02 Volume 7, Bound, 1176 pages, 44 chapters

The final bound volume (A clear continuation from Volume 6)

Box #7

(very firm ending)

No continuity whatsoever with unbound vol. 7

Perfect continuity with unbound vol. 8!

Box 8, Darger Collection, Volume 8, Realms, Unbound, PDR8 Volume 8 (unbound), 836 pages A clear continuation of bound volume 7. Box needed.

15" long x 10" wide x 4" high A complete xerox copy of this volume exists with John M. One group of pages has run duets overlay wet ink, and is now all but illegible (my copy can't be read.) A tape should be made!

At present time there is no volume 9 identified. This is no longer true.

Box 9, Darger Collection, Volume 9 (?), [Formerly Vol. C], Realms, PDR9
(AKA "C") Unbound Realms - "Vol. C" - 2164 pages - This is Vol. 9 - Jm.

Unnumbered Vol. C (unbound)
2164 pages
xeroxed

It is the only unbound volume which has not yet been copied, and which Dr. MacGregor doesn't have a copy of. I have completed [it] numbering of the pages! The volume has not been studied, and no attempt has been made to see where or [with what] it fits. Not true! - it is now relatively clear that this is Volume 9 (unbound)

Box 10, Darger Collection, Volume 10, Part 1, Realms, Darger split Vol. 10 in 2 parts, PDR10A Volume Ten: Part 1 It is absolutely unclear where this problematic volume fits - not true now At present we have found Vol. C.

So it is difficult to see how it fits at that end - it falls under 9 / C

The conclusion of this section doesn't seem to flow into Vol. X Part 2 - False.

A complete xerox version exists with Dr. MacGregor

Box 11, Darger Collection, Volume 10, Part 2, Realms, Darger split Vol. 10 in 2 parts, PDR10B Volume 10, unbound

Part 2, 944 pages

Since no labeled Volume 9 exists, no continuity can be established.

There is clear evidence that this Volume 10 is followed by Volume Eleven! yes.

A complete xerox version exists with Dr. MacGregor.

Box 12, Darger Collection, Volume 11, Realms, PDR11 Vol. 11 (unbound)

908 pages. The final numbered volume.

There is absolutely clear evidence that the text flows smoothly from volume ten to eleven. Vol. 11 is not the end of the Realms.

A complete xerox copy exists of this volume with Dr. MacGregor.

Box 13, Darger Collection, Volume 12 (?), previously unbound Vol. 7, Realms, PDR12 Volume 7 (unbound) 1210 pages.

Note: There is also a bound Volume 7. I now believe, with fairly good evidence, that this is the second to last book in the sequence, and not therefore Volume 7. Further study is required. (a complete copy exists now with Dr. MacGregor)

Extra pages - 126A, 169A-416, 454A, 548A, 551A = 8 additional pages.

Note - p. 2914 - I guessed was missing, has been found! It is glued to the back of p. 3544 in Vol. B, at the very end of the book. Get a photocopy of this page and replace it. I have done so.

Note - unbound Volume B resumes story with page 2916. (2915 - is the page still missing?)

Box 14, Darger Collection, Volume 13 (?), final vol., formerly Vol. B, Realms, PDR13 Volume B (unbound) 652 pages

This volume has not been sufficiently studied to determine where it fits. At the present time, I believe this is the final volume of the Realms. The story is finally wrapped up and a smooth conclusion of the giant work work achieved.

I also think that unbound Volume 7 may proceed this final volume - further study needed. A complete xerox exists.

Box 15, Darger Collection, Volume A (unidentified), Realms, PDRA, "A-175", 1 page Unnumbered Vol. A (see my detailed study of chapt. headings)

Has not yet been studied, nor has it been possible as yet to determine where it might fit in the sequence. A complete xerox has been made and is in the possession of Dr. MacGregor.

Note: In reviewing the loose pages of manuscript, I found 16 pages at the end of this manuscript A, that had become separated. I decided to restore them. The final pages of the volume seem to be all mixed up. I haven't sorted the mess out but it probably can be easily corrected.

First numbered page - 2155. First chapter referred to is Chapt. 64.
Vol. A continues the Battle of Gretchen.

Note: I have found among the loose manuscript pages - 16 pages of "songs" or "poems" which are numbered - [they] appear to have been removed from this manuscript and so I am returning the 16 pages.

P. 3985, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99 - 4000, 40001. The Volume then picks up with 4002! A real discovery! Jan. 26, 1992.

On p. 4590, Darger made a second error jumping from 4590 to 4951, thus adding 360 new existent pages.

Original Box Information:

Box 13, Darger Collection, Volume 12 (?), previously unbound Vol. 7, Realms, PDR12

Original Notes:

Nov. 16, 1990 - Note: This is unbound Volume Seven.

We have a bound Volume 7 and an unbound Volume 8 which continues very precisely the contents of bound Volume 7. For this reason, this volume must tentatively be removed from the continuity and held until [last] to determine where it fits.

"k" key ok (it is broken in Vol. 7/bound & Vol. 8)

Note: p. 2914 (B 317) does not belong where it is. It should be xeroxed and then added to the end of Volume 12 (?) which presently ends with p. 2913 of Vol. 7 unbound p. 601 - 7.601
Then the original page should be fitted back into the end of Volume 13?

Original Box Information:

Box 15, Darger Collection, Volume A (unidentified), Realms, PDRA, "A-175", 1 page

Original Notes:

Note: My page B-319 is not from this volume and is probably the final page of some other volume. It needs to be studied to see if it might be the end of one of the unbound volumes.

These last pages, B-320-326 (as identified by MacGregor) do not belong here. They may be final - no - I don't know where they belong -M.B.

B-318 is the final page of The Realms.

A176-A182 - an unidentified chapter not associated with the master and unnumbered

Unconnected - group of songs numbered 3985-4001

Note: This "volume" has never been studied and at present seems to be entirely out of order - it needs careful study to see if continuity can be established before any effort is made to relocate it in the sequence of the Realms volumes

182 x 2 = 364 page count

Box 15: Unidentified 'volume' of The Realms commonly referred to as Volume A.
